NARRATIVE:

Giles Spellman is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include carrying a loaded firearm in public, illegal possession of an assault weapon, manufacturing and possessing dangerous weapons, domestic violence with injury, several violations of protective court orders, parole violations, resisting arrest, trespassing, false identification to a peace officer, driving without a valid license and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 2 year term for carrying a loaded firearm in public. Spellman was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 20, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Spellman qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for carrying a loaded firearm in public is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
